Working across our group subjects and with other teams in the Faculties of Social Science, Environment, Engineering and Medicine we focus on 'the politics of art' in our research and teaching. Looted art has been a consequence of looting during war, natural disaster and riot for centuries. Looting of art, archaeology and other cultural property may be an opportunistic criminal act or may be a more organized case of unlawful or unethical pillage by the victor of a conflict. The term "looted art" reflects bias, and whether particular art has been taken legally or illegally is often ...
